

Biography

Jörgen Björkner, Telepo

MSc (Engineering), Founder, CTO and Board Member

Jörgen Björkner has a wealth of experience within the VoIP field. In 2003, he founded Telepo (www.telepo.com) together with Lars-Michaël Paqvalén, a fast-growing software company providing efficient convergence solutions for large and medium-sized enterprises and service providers.

In 1997, Jörgen started to promote SIP as the future of communication within the Swedish service provider, Telia, where he was responsible for the company's IETF standardisation activities.

In 2000, he joined the broadband telephony infrastructure vendor Hotsip, which was acquired by Oracle Corporation in 2006, as VP of Concept Development. Jörgen also founded the SIP Forum (www.sipforum.org) where he was the chairman of the board for three years and among the board of directors for over four years.

Jörgen Björkner has a masters of science degree from the Royal Institute of Technology in Stockholm, Sweden.
